Who we are

In the winter of 1981, our founder Mose Miller realized a growing need for quality storage buildings. He decided to build his own out of the small workshop on his property. This is where Alpine Structures was born. As Alpine has grown since, we've stayed humbly dedicated to providing an excellent shed-buying experience: offering high-quality products with the most helpful service possible.

We credit our success first and foremost to God who has blessed us abundantly with wonderful employees and loyal customers.

– Javan Miller, owner
